ANNUAL ROUNDUP BARBEQUE CELEBRATES CONSERVATION THROUGH RANCHING

CHEYENNE --- This year's Roundup Barbeque will be held in Saratoga, WY on Saturday, August 24th for the benefit of the Wyoming Stock Growers Land Trust. Hosts Jack and Donna Glode and Joe Glode and Julie Evans will welcome guests for an evening in celebration of conservation through ranching in Wyoming and a delicious beef dinner catered by the Hotel Wolf, dancing to the music of the Lonesome Heroes from Austin, Texas and plenty of visiting with friends and neighbors from across the state

Are you a fan of Wyoming author CJ Box? Would you like your name in his next book? You can bid on this opportunity and many other unique items in a live auction presided over by Joe Thomas of Meeteetse. Featured items include paintings by Wyoming artists Brandon Bailey, Gayle Barnett, Christie Kemp, tickets to the National Finals Rodeo, a Billy Cook stock saddle, jewelry, unique vacation packages, western decor and, yes, the opportunity to get your name in a book by CJ Box. You can even check out the items online to get a jump start on your bidding.

A limited number of guests are invited to fish on the North Platte River on Sheeprock Ranch prior to the barbeque. Tickets for the event are $75 per person. If you are interested in attending the barbeque please contact Shari at 307.772.8751 or shari@wsgalt.org to make your reservations.
